

2010 SOURCE LIST FOR PROMOTIONAL EXAM

Revised December 2009

Fire Specialist

1. Fire Department Rules and Regulations
(All Sections and Appendixes including the Fair Practices Policy)
2. Fire Department Standard Operating Procedures:
 - 400-02 Accidents Involving Apparatus or other County Vehicles
 - 400-06 Hydrant Maintenance
 - 400-07 Field Inspection Program
 - 400-09 Apparatus and Related Equipment (Maintenance & Care)
 - 400-11 Violations of Baltimore County Fire Code
 - 400-12 Company Tour Inspection Procedures
 - 400-13 Fire Survey Planning
 - 400-14 In-Station/Company Training
3. Tactical Manual:
 - Tactical 08: Fireground Operations (*Typo; revised to Tact 08 by ELG)
 - Tactical 09: MAYDAY Procedures
3. IFSTA - Fire and Emergency Services Instructor, 7th edition: Part B
4. IFSTA - Essentials of Firefighting, 5th edition, chapters 2, 3, 16,18, 20
5. IFSTA – Fire Inspection and Code Enforcement, 7th edition, chapters 1,2 7,9, 12
5. Collapse of Burning Buildings (Dunn) - Chapter 3 only

Sources for reading comprehension questions only:

1. The Fire Prevention Code of Baltimore County
2. Life Safety Code #101 (NFPA)

The Fire Department will make a diligent effort to make the above referenced source materials available in station libraries. However, the Department accepts no responsibility for the availability of these materials being present in station libraries for promotional examination study purposes.

PER THE MOU, FIRE SPECIALIST EXAMS TAKE PLACE IN APRIL

Per Ron Harvey, all covered material must be dated SIXTY days prior to exam date.